NEQMAP's 3rd Steering Group & Annual Meeting

9-11 DECEMBER, 2015 / BANGKOK

Background

The Network on Education Quality Monitoring in the Asia Pacific (NEQMAP), with support from the Global Partnership for Education (GPE) and the Malaysian Funds-in-Trust, will organize its 3rd Steering Group and Annual Meeting on 9-11 December, 2015 in Bangkok.

The annual meeting will focus on discussion of current and future NEQMAP activities, sharing on members' activities and discussion of network matters (e.g. communication, membership, resource mobilization). In addition, the meeting will also host the launch of a new OECD-World Bank publication which aims to inform the development and implementation of PISA for Development and to share wider experiences and lessons from the major international, regional and national large-scale educational assessments.

All NEQMAP members are invited to participate in this annual meeting to discuss the current status and future prospects of the network, to exchange ideas and information on each other's work and to network with other member institutions as well as partner organizations.

Date

The event will commence with the Steering Group Meeting on Wednesday, 9 December, followed by the Annual Meeting through Friday, 11 December 2015. Participants are expected to stay for the full duration of the meeting.

Visa requirement

Participants are responsible for obtaining their own visas (including visa fee) at the Thai Embassy or Consulate nearest to them. A formal letter of invitation can be provided by UNESCO Bangkok to facilitate the process.
