

List of national speakers:

Indonesia

Dr Susanti Sufyadi, Policy Analyst Expert and a member of the Curriculum Reform Team of the Agency for Development and Research and Books, Ministry of Education and Culture, Indonesia. Dr Sufyadi is currently in charge as a Learning Substance Coordinator at the Centre for Assessment and Learning. She has authored several national publications related to national assessments and learning such as Primary School Literacy Movement Guide, and Literacy and Numeration Learning Module at Elementary School Level. She has also participated in several training, workshop and seminar in the field of Curriculum, Learning and Education Policy such as training for lecturers of Institutes of Teachers Training and Education Personnel (ITTEP) held by JICA-Japan, Building State Capability Online course series “The Practice of PDIA: Building Capability by Delivering Results” held by Harvard Center for International Development

Dr Rahmawati, Researcher, Center for Assessment and Learning, Ministry of Education and Culture, Indonesia. Dr Rahmawati is currently in charge of the assessment component at the Center. He has conducted various research and analyses related to large scale assessments such as the Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA) from 2003 to present, the Trend in International Mathematics and Science Study (TIMSS) from 2003-2015 etc. He has also participated in many trainings, workshops and seminars in the field of learning assessments such as South East Asia Primary Learning Matrix, PISA National Project Manager Workshop and Global Alignment to Monitor Learning, SDG Programme etc.

Thailand

Dr Rattana Sangbuaphuen, Director of Bureau of Academic Affairs and Educational Standards, Office of the Basic Education Commission (OBEC), Ministry of Education, Thailand. Dr. Rattana, a well-experienced curriculum developer and a long term capable academic official. With 30 years of Thailand education development, she has been tasked to lead the current curriculum development process to ensure equality and equity for all students in Thailand. As a director of the national curriculum development agency and a dedicated development educator, she has passionately orchestrated all society sectors to actively involve and engage with the current competency-based curriculum development process. She is also a lifelong learner and willing to exchange her experience with wider networks from both domestic and international.